Dear Friends:

Every day, life is new, and God calls us to love and care for one another. In a year, a lot of good happens at Lutheran Social Services of Illinois (LSSI). Through our work, many people are helped, supported, cared for and healed. And with LSSI’s help, many people take new steps to build and strengthen their lives. This past year, that love and care was extended to 108,000 men, women and children who reached out for our services in one way or another.
The demand for our services continues to grow as poverty becomes a larger burden for more and more people in our state and nation. Nearly 50 percent of the people we serve have incomes of less than $5,000, and almost 80 percent are below the poverty line, with the majority of those being children and seniors. The impact of chronic poverty on child development and the lives of families increases the demand and necessity for the quality services that we offer to people who need a helping hand to successfully participate in the life of our community.

This call to love and care for one another happens every day at our agency. Whether it is a dedicated foster parent providing a stable and loving home for a child who has suffered abuse or neglect and separation from his birth family, a compassionate home care assistant who helps a senior maintain her life at home, or a wise counselor at one of our substance abuse programs who helps someone on the path to sobriety, this call – which is our mission – is answered. The thirsty are given water, and lives are made new.

This past year has been difficult for our agency to financially sustain the breadth and quality of programs for people in need. It is only through the sacrificial contributions of the people and organizations listed here that we have not left any of the people who have called for help on the side of the road without assistance. In particular, the support of The Cornerstone Foundation has enabled us to sustain the critical work that we do.

I am deeply thankful for the support that so many have contributed to Lutheran Social Services of Illinois. I invite you to join with me in celebrating our work of bringing healing, justice and wholeness to people and communities during this past year.

In Faith and Gratitude,

The Rev. Denver Bitner, D.Min.
President/CEO

Agency Highlights
Fiscal Year 2012

Lutheran Social Services of Illinois (LSSI) served more than 108,000 people in Fiscal Year 2012 through 190 programs at 85 program sites across the state. LSSI serves many people living in poverty, with 49 percent having annual incomes of less than $5,000.

In 2012, LSSI’s Office of Church and Community Services (OCCS) launched its Hands@Work initiative, which offers church members and others numerous opportunities to “get their hands dirty” doing God’s work in their local communities. Through “Setting the Table” — part of Hands@Work — an LSSI facilitator walks members of a congregation through a deliberate discernment process intended to identify unmet local human needs and then to mobilize the congregation to respond to those needs.

Last year, Prisoner & Family Ministry served 14,325 people, including 8,419 children of incarcerated parents; 963 caregivers (relatives who are caring for the children of incarcerated parents); 4,233 incarcerated men and women; and 710 returning citizens — individuals leaving prison to return to the community and begin new lives.

Reentry Services, a program of LSSI’s Prisoner and Family Ministry, serves citizens returning to the community following incarceration.
On February 27, 2012, LSSI was licensed by the State of Illinois’ Division of Developmental Disabilities to operate a developmental training program on the campus of Shady Oaks, its residential program in Homer Glen for adults with developmental disabilities. Open five days a week, the program serves 30 individuals, helping them acquire skills that lead to more productive and fulfilling lives.

LSSI’s Rogers Park Children’s Center, with its culturally sensitive and diverse staff, is extremely popular in the community, as evidenced by a significant waiting list. The families whose 54 children attend LSSI’s Rogers Park Head Start site are from many areas of the world, including Africa, the Middle East, India, and South and Central America. Every family event held at the center is a beautiful display of colorful, traditional dress, music, languages and food from many cultures of the world.

LSSI, which served 2,600 foster children in FY12, has made a commitment to providing trauma-informed training for its foster parents. The 10-hour training program is designed to help foster parents develop an understanding of complex trauma and to be better prepared to respond effectively to the emotions and behaviors of foster children, who have experienced a great deal of trauma in their lives, including being separated from their birth parents.

Since June 2010, 192 foster parents at LSSI have received the training and responded positively to it, impacting 400-500 foster children. Says Marcia Weflen, associate executive director of LSSI’s Children’s Community Services, “We must offer this essential training so that our foster parents have a better understanding of how these children’s experiences impact their behavior, which increases their empathy and ability to see these children through the many difficult periods that arise in their lives.”

Washington Place, a group home for adults with Prader-Willi syndrome in Beardstown, provides structure and a sense of family for the residents who live there.
In July 2012, LSSI implemented the first phase of CareLogic, an Electronic Health Record System, the result of a collaboration of its Mental Health Services, Information Systems and Finance departments. LSSI’s SASS and Project HOPE programs (crisis intervention and life skills programs for children and youth), as well as psychiatrists at LSSI’s Portage Cragin Counseling Center in Chicago, are now using CareLogic as the primary client record-keeping system. The new system helps workers comply with ever-changing federal and state requirements. CareLogic makes staff more efficient and helps them provide better care to clients.

LSSI’s Intouch Home Care Services provides non-medical assistance to help older adults maintain their lives at home. Trained home care assistants help individuals with personal care, home care, meal preparation and other tasks of daily living. In FY12, Intouch grew by 6.6 percent from the previous year, serving 1,949 seniors in many Illinois counties through its offices in Metro Chicago, DeKalb, Rockford, Peoria, Canton, Freeport and Moline.

LSSI provides affordable housing and services to low-income seniors and disabled adults at 20 different sites throughout Illinois. During FY12, 1,599 individuals were served by LSSI’s program, funded by HUD, enabling them to reside comfortably in their own apartments.

On October 11, 2012, LSSI broke ground on its newest senior housing site — Gable Point Senior Housing — in Crystal Lake. Located on three acres, the Victorian-style Gable Point will offer 59 affordable one-bedroom apartments for low-income seniors aged 62 years and older. The project began five years ago when LSSI discovered the need for affordable housing in the community — there were 3,800 seniors in the area whose income was at the poverty level. The project is expected to be completed in the fall of 2013.

LSSI served 2,600 foster children in FY12. While the goal of foster care is to reunite children with their birth families, some children, like this little boy, are adopted by their foster parents.

LSSI Honors Kent P. Dauten with 2012 Amicus Certus Award

Kent P. Dauten received the 2012 Amicus Certus (“True Friend”) Award at the 31st Annual Amicus Certus Celebration on November 10, 2012. “Over the last two decades, Kent has made a tremendous impact on the work of Lutheran Social Services of Illinois,” says The Rev. Denver Bitner, D.Min, LSSI president/CEO. “He has helped to sustain programs serving people in need that have been at the heart of our work for many years.”

The Amicus Certus Award is given annually to individuals or organizations that have made significant contributions to the human community. Dauten served on LSSI’s Board of Directors from 1992 to 1998, including as chair from 1996-1998, and is a managing director of Keystone Capital, Inc., a private equity investment firm and entrepreneurial holding company that he founded in 1994.

The 2012 Amicus Certus Celebration, hosted by the Women’s Network of LSSI, raised more than $100,000 for LSSI’s services for people in need throughout the state. For more on Kent Dauten, visit www.LSSI.org.

Illinois National Guard Receives 2012 Paul Simon Courage in Public Service Award

The 2012 Paul Simon Courage in Public Service Award was presented to the men and women serving in the Illinois National Guard during 2012 Lutheran Day activities in Springfield. The award recognizes Illinois public officials who demonstrate a commitment to just, compassionate and responsible public policy.

Brig. Gen. Robert Pratt, director of the joint staff for the Illinois National Guard, accepted the award from The Rev. Daniel Schwick, LSSI’s vice president of church and community services, which is given by organizations that sponsor Lutheran Day. Schwick said, “We are honored to present the Paul Simon Courage in Public Service Award to the Illinois National Guard, who have shown courage and integrity in facing their various missions.”
