

Good Shepherd Sunday Overview

Thank you for participating in Good Shepherd Sunday 2024. If you have any questions, please contact Kelly Nieman Anderson at Kelly.Nieman-Anderson@LSSI.org.

Where to Start

Visit LSSI.org/GSS. By filling out the form at the bottom of the page, you may complete the following steps:

- Let LSSI know about your plans to celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday
- Request a speaker
- Request giving envelopes
- If you are unable to download any resources, you can request that a thumb drive with the resources be mailed to you
- Ask that someone contact you to discuss Good Shepherd Sunday

Watch the Good Shepherd Sunday Webinar

Pr. Kelly Nieman Anderson, Manager of Church and Community

Engagement at LSSI, hosted an informational webinar on March 14 with church leaders who shared their own experiences planning a Good Shepherd Sunday service, offered suggestions, and answered questions. Click here to watch the recording on Youtube.

Review the Resources

The following resources are available to help your congregation celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. You may access these resources at LSSI.org/GSS.

Print materials (Downloadable PDFs)

- A Good Shepherd Sunday poster was mailed to your congregation!
- Good Shepherd Sunday flyer in English and Spanish
- Bulletin Insert
- Impact Statement
- Children's Message
- Worship Suggestions

- Sunday School Lesson and Confirmation/Youth Group Lesson
- Good Shepherd Sunday FAQ

Video resources

- A sermon by Mark Stutrud, President and CEO of LSSI
- A story video about a family served through LSSI's Intact Family Services, which will be available March 25.

Tools to support LSSI programs

- LSSI giving envelopes. Use the form at LSSI.org/GSS to request that envelopes be mailed to your congregation.
- LSSI's Good Shepherd Sunday Donation Page, which may be shared with your congregation.